

Finding your way to the Priory Hospital Woking

By Car:

From M3 - Take Junction 3 for the A322 south towards Guildford. Just after Bisley turn left at the traffic lights into Limecroft Road, signposted Knaphill. After about 150 yards turn left at the next lights into Chobham Road. The Priory Hospital Woking is on the left after about 200 yards.

From M25 - Take Junction 11 for the A320 towards Woking for about 4 miles until the 4th roundabout (called the Six Cross Roads Roundabout). Take the 5th exit (signposted Chobham/Knaphill) and continue for 3½ miles towards and through the village of Knaphill. As you start to come out of Knaphill, you come to a set of traffic lights; turn right into Chobham Road and the hospital is about 200 yards on the left.

Parking: is available at the hospital.

By Train: Woking station is a 20 minute taxi ride from the hospital and Brookwood Station is a 10 minute taxi ride.
