

Lombard House & our community

Attleborough, Norfolk

Lombard House is set in the beautiful market town of Attleborough in South Norfolk. We are very lucky to be in such a beautiful location.

The town's history can be traced back to Saxon times and it has a fine example of a medieval church with a Norman tower.

Situated just 14 miles from Norwich city centre and 14 miles to the larger town of Thetford.

The town boasts many independent shops and cafes and has had a market every Thursday since 1226!

It offers many opportunities for our patients to access community life.

Beautiful medieval church

Our local library is a great place to visit

Plenty of lovely places for a bite to eat

Town Centre

A real community town with wonderful shops and cafes

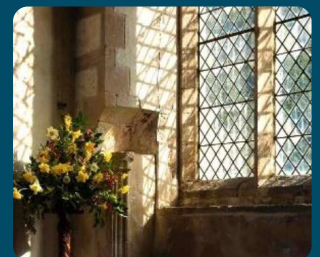

There is plenty to see on walks around Attleborough, even when the shops are unable to open

Lombard House is in a very quiet country lane where we can go for long walks and appreciate the surroundings

Our local village Ellingham is a great place for walks with lots of interesting things to see
