Getting lives back on track

Mental health conditions can have a huge effect on the people experiencing them and their families, friends and loved ones. Priory offers the best available mental health and wellbeing support – every year our private services treat over 10,000 people with mental health issues, and our proven track record in getting lives back on track is unrivalled.

The Priory logo is displayed on a teal-colored sign. The word "PRIORY" is written in a white, serif font. The letter "O" is highlighted with a red outline. The sign is tilted upwards and to the right, and the background behind it is a blurred green and blue bokeh.

We can help you with:

Tailored treatment

Every person we support receives a personalised treatment programme. An initial consultation enables our expert team to understand the challenges each individual faces, and to recommend and deliver the best course of treatment.

Why Priory Wellbeing Centres?

We employ and work with the country's leading therapists, consultant psychiatrists and psychologists, offering proven outpatient treatments to help manage all mental health conditions.

At the Priory Wellbeing Centre, Fenchurch Street we offer:

- Expert care from the UK's leading independent provider of mental health services
- Fast access to expert treatment
- Complete discretion and confidentiality
- Flexible consulting hours to fit round your work and commitments
- Central London location
- Regulation by the Care Quality Commission, the independent health care regulator, giving you peace of mind.

We have close links with the Priory Hospitals in Roehampton, North London and Hayes Grove, ensuring seamless access to more specialist or intensive services if required.

Treatment you'd recommend
